A Keller Williams Experience Herman and Dee Grothe's Story

by Amy Sharp

Herman and Dee Grothe met KW (Keller Williams) Southwest agent Ross McEathron six years ago when he was the selling agent for the home they purchased when they first moved to the Houston area. Dee says, "We were impressed with the sincerity of his personality and his immeasurable knowledge of real estate."

"We were so impressed," continues Herman, "that we decided he would be our agent when we sold that house and bought a home closer to our daughter's family. Ross not only makes sure to cross all the T's and dot every I, but he also genuinely cares about his clients as people. He makes sure to find the perfect home at the right price, and then he goes above and beyond. How many real estate agents would help wire and install televisions? Or help move and set up a ridiculously heavy bedroom set?"

"We've already recommended Ross to friends," says Dee. "They were just as impressed as we are! Ross is informed and caring. He's a pleasure to know as a person and the best real estate agent to be found anywhere."

A Champion for Charity

Parks Youth Ranch is an eight acre ranch right here in Fort Bend County that provides emergency shelter, counseling, and life-changing services to abused and neglected youth ages 7-17. KW Southwest Agent

Ross McEathron says, "Any youth in need can get in contact with Parks Youth Ranch for assistance or services. Both the shelter and the counseling center programs are committed to developing a long-term plan of action for stability and positive life change."

"Parks Youth Ranch provides a vital service to our community," continues Ross. "And they depend on
